Dear Sir Kantaraj Urs,

I am desired to state that, under clause (1) of rule 41 of the Indian Arms Rules, 1920, read with Form VI in Schedule VII annended to the Rules every license granted or renewed by this Residency for the export of arms and ammunition to the Mysore State is chargeable with a fee of Rs. 5/-. Under clause (5) of the same rule, the Resident proposes to remit this fee as an act of courtesy in the case of the following whenever export licenses are granted in their behalf.

His Highness the Maharaja,

His Highness the Yuvaraja,

The Dewan

Members of Council

Judges of the Chief Court

Chief Commandant, Mysore State Troops.

The Hon'ble the Resident will be glad to know whether in your opinion, there are any other high state officials or nobles to whom you consider the concession might suitably be extended as an act of courtesy.

I might add that every application for a license on behalf of such persons is subject, however, to a fee of one anna under the Indian Court Fees Act, 1870. This fee is paid by attaching, for the sake of convenience, a British India Postage stamp of the value of one anna to the application.

Yours sincerely,

Sirdar M. Kantaraj Urs, C.S.I.
Dewan of Mysore.

Dear Major Plowden,

Please refer to your ~~xxxxxx~~ memorandum No.6386 dated 26th July 1920 in the matter of exempting certain nobles ~~xx~~ and high officers of the State, from payment of license fee for the import of Arms or Ammunition.

I do not find the name of the Private Secretary to H. H. the Maharaja in the list of the exempts although his inclusion was also requested - vide Dewan's D.O. letter No.879 dated 28th June 1920 addressed to you. I am accordingly to enquire whether the omission of his name was intentional. If it was not would you kindly take necessary action

Mr. Campbell ~~when he saw me two days~~ ~~back~~ spoke to me about this a few days ago ~~in this connection~~ and hence this enquiry.
